

Kensington and Chelsea Learning Disability and Dementia Study and Strategy Half-Day Programme

- 12.15 Registration and light lunch. Opportunity to view stalls
- 12.45 Welcome by Mark Gierke (Learning Disability Health Team Manager, Kensington and Chelsea Primary Care Trust)
- 13.00 Keynote speaker: Professor Tony Holland
- 14.00 Break. Opportunity to view stalls
- 14.15 Workshops (participants to choose one)
- 1) Setting up a Memory Clinic for people with learning disabilities Dr Annabel Dudley (Consultant Psychiatrist, Barnet Primary Care Trust)
  - 2) Palliative care of people with learning disabilities and dementia - the benefits of joint working between learning disability services and palliative care services Sue Martin (Specialist Speech and Language Therapist) and Gavan O Sullivan (Macmillan Palliative Care Clinical Nurse Specialist) Camden Primary Care Trust
  - 3) The direct carer / care worker experience. Supporting people with Downs Alzheimers dementia to remain within their own homes. Jo Clare (Residential Home Manager, Craegmoor Healthcare) possibly in conjunction with a relative of a person with Downs syndrome who had dementia
- 15.15 Feedback from workshops to main group
- 15.45 Break. Opportunity to view stalls
- 16.00 Plenary chaired by Mark Gierke. Formulation of an action plan for the development of services for people with learning disability and dementia from Kensington and Chelsea.

Information table/stalls:

- The Dementia Development Team (Josie Elroy, RBKC DDT)
- The Admiral Nurse Service (Debbie Hawkins, North Kensington and Westminster Admiral Nurse Team Leader)
- Pharmaceutical companies