

Making hospital services better for people with learning disabilities

16th March 2011

London Kensington, Copthorne Tara Hotel, W8 5SR

The NHS should ensure momentum is maintained in improving care and outcomes for people with learning disabilities, in the light of the “Six Lives” Progress Report” Findings presented to the Ombudsman suggest particular emphasis should be given to ensuring staff are trained to make reasonable adjustments

(NHS Operating Framework 2011/12)

Come to a joint conference being held by Improving Health and Lives, Mencap and NHS South West

- Find out how Mencap’s Getting It Right campaign is supporting the implementation of reasonable adjustments across the country
- Find out how Improving Health and Lives, including the Confidential Inquiry is working to get better information about the health of people with learning disabilities in hospital
- Find out how NHS South West, in partnership with local commissioners, facilitated a peer review of acute hospitals’ ability to meet the needs of people with a learning disability
- Find out about the process of the review, the tools and the learning, so that your area can easily implement a similar review

Who should come

Acute hospital leads, community hospital leads, liaison nurses and other health professionals., People First members, members of Learning Disability Partnership Boards, carers organisations, commissioners, GP consortium and LINK leads
