

Tomorrow's Leaders

Are you a leader in your area?

Inclusion North has been asked by the Valuing People Team to run Tomorrow's Leaders.

Tomorrow's Leaders is a Leadership Course for people with learning disabilities to come together and learn about:

- ✓ The history of the self advocacy movement
- ✓ Why services have been designed in the way they have
- ✓ How government works and policies are made
- ✓ How to get your point over to people
- ✓ What being a strong leader means

If you are already involved in making things better for people with learning disabilities where you live, this might be by being part of your Partnership Board or Self Advocacy Group and you want to become more powerful then this free course is for you!

The course will run on the dates below and they will include overnight stays.

Session One: 13th November – 1 day

Session Two: 26th to 28th November – 3 days

Session Three: 7th to 9th January 2009 – 3 days

Session Four: 10th to 11th February 2009 – 2 days

Celebration & Graduation day: 16th March 2009 - 1 day

You will need a partner to work with you when you study on the course and you both need to make sure you can come to all the sessions.

The whole course will happen in Hoddesdon, Hertfordshire and is for people from the London area.
