We are pleased to announce the first ever UK TalkTools conference, taking place in June 2011. This conference is for anyone who is interested in TalkTools, both parents and therapists who are new to TalkTools and those already using TalkTools.

Renne Roy-Hill, from TalkTools USA will be attending, and will provide an update on new developments within TalkTools, including an update on the latest research.

Risca Soloman will be introducing the new TalkTools for Autism programme.

Other conference events include:

Presentations from parents, therapists and clients who are using TalkTools Oral Placement therapy.

Special Focus Workshops on some of the individual aspects of the TalkTools programme, e.g. straw hierarchy workshop, bite blocks workshop.

The opportunity to see the whole equipment range first hand, and to place orders at a special conference discount rate.

Focus on Training, to enable people to find out more about the various TalkTools training routes available.

Opportunities to meet and share ideas with other parents and therapists who are using TalkTools, including a question and answer forum.

Early booking is essential - Booking confirmation (by payment) before 6th May 2011
