

Values training Workshop

Wednesday 16th January 2008
10.30am to 4.30pm

New Century Halls 15 Heathcote Road
Walton Liverpool L4 6XB

About the Workshop

The workshop will explore the history of how people with learning disabilities have been excluded and marginalised. Participants will then gain an understanding of the values, principles and skills needed to support people in a person centred way.

Workshop Facilitators

Presentations and exercises will be given by Richard Williams, Chief Executive of options, a supported living agency that supports people with learning difficulties to live their lives to the full.
