

Are you a health or social care provider?

A trainer of professionals?

Can the people you provide services for display violent behaviour?

If you answered 'YES' to any of these questions then this training resource package could be for you.

Containing a DVD and training manual this package has been designed to assist you to:

- Create a forum where violence can be discussed
- Encourage reflection on responses to threatening situations
- Facilitate assessment of potentially violent or threatening situations
- Enable planning for adverse situations
- Encourage a review of practices in relation to National and local policies and procedures
