

Valuing People Now:

A new team structure to make it happen for everyone, everywhere

The delivery of Valuing People Now is driven by two groups which, with Department of Health policy colleagues and the Deputy Regional Director Lead for Learning Disabilities, form the broader Valuing People Now Team. This team meets regularly to ensure that both national and regional work plans to deliver Valuing People Now are joined up, and to monitor progress against the delivery plan commitments.

The two groups are as follows:
