As national and local structures change, the Valuing People Now strategy remains a priority for continuing the journey to achieving choice, rights and independence with people with learning disabilities.

This conference will bring together leaders in the field to explore the challenge of maintaining momentum and creating new opportunities within the context of broader policy change and reduced public sector budgets.

This conference is for:

Leaders in planning or providing services, including people with learning disabilities and their families.

Key decision makers on Partnership Boards.

This is an opportunity to:

Have your say as people come together to discuss how to keep the Valuing People vision going.

Engage with conference speakers and other leaders and participate in developing the ideas that will shape future agendas.

Hear examples of best practice that can support you to continue to deliver Valuing People priorities.

Create critical links with other leaders that will help maintain momentum in the future.
