

An Event Exploring Wills, Trusts and Estate Planning for People with Disabilities

Bridgewater Hall, Weds 11th July 07

9.30am - 4.00pm

Due to radical changes happening in the social care system, this market has opened up to a potential audience of over 6 million in the UK.

Do you act as a 'receiver' or hold the power of attorney for any client that has mental health issues or suffered a brain injury?

Are you aware of how the new social care changes will affect your clients with regards to 'Wills & Trusts' and the 'Mental Capacity Act'?

This event will help you to:

- set up a will or trust for a vulnerable person in the light of the changes precipitated by changes in social care system
- understand the issues surrounding the Criminal Justice System and people with learning disabilities or mental health issues
- improve your knowledge of the Mental Capacity Act.

This is a quick turnaround conference and places are likely to be in huge demand. Book early to avoid disappointment and save £5 off if you book before 15th June 07

Speakers include: -

- Andrew Keogh - Tuckers Solicitors in Manchester
- Alex Elphinston, Anthony Collins in Birmingham
- Caroline Tomlinson, Community Director 'In Control'
- Hugh Jones, Pannone, Specialist in Wills, Trusts and Independent Living Trusts
- 'Case Studies' presented by people whose are now 'in control' of their lives.

Individuals, Families and Carers very welcome
