The focus of these events will be to raise awareness of the forthcoming good practice guidance from Department of Health and DfES on Working with Parents with Learning Disabilities.

All delegates will receive free copies of the guidance for professionals and the easy version for parents.

The events will be all day from 9.30 to 4.15 and will include

- ◆ a plenary presentation
- ◆ workshops on new initiatives and ideas for good practice
- ◆ opportunities for networking, discussion and group-work.

Lunch and refreshments are also included.

Confirmed speakers and workshop leaders include

- ◆ Rob Greig – National Director: Learning Disabilities
- ◆ Nicola Gitsham - Valuing People Support Team
- ◆ Parents from CHANGE who are involved in a range of projects on supporting parents with learning disabilities
- ◆ Jenny Morris – freelance researcher and author of good practice guidance on Working with Parents with Learning Disabilities
- ◆ Sue McGaw – Cornwall Special Parenting Service and author of the Parent Assessment Manual and several books on parents with learning disabilities
- ◆ Rose DePaeztron – Family Welfare Association
- ◆ Linda Ward (Chair) – Norah Fry Research Centre, University of Bristol

Numbers are strictly limited to 50 people per event, and places will be allocated on receipt of your individual application form.

We are very keen to encourage local networking and team working between the different professionals involved in supporting parents with learning disabilities.

With this in mind, we are asking participants to consider asking colleagues from other teams to attend with them. For example, if you work in a children's team perhaps you could attend with a colleague from adult services?

If you would like us to send your colleague details of the project and this event, please fill in the details below.
