ASL & Housing Options Joint Annual Conference 2012

Manchester Conference Centre
22nd November 2012

Weston Building, Sackville Street, Manchester, M1 3BB

HOUSING
OPTIONS

This year the ASL and Housing Options have teamed up for what will be the most important conference of the year for those working in the housing and supported living sector for people with learning disabilities. The focus of the conference will be on how organisations, people with learning disabilities and families can work together and widen our thinking on supported living to ensure that people get the housing and support they need to live ordinary and equal lives.

We do hope you are able to attend what will be a very exciting and thought-provoking day as well as a great networking opportunity.

Speakers will include:

Ian Birrell – Columnist & Campaigner (chair)

Kaliya Franklin – Disability Rights Activist

Alan Rosenbach – Special Policy Lead, Care Quality Commission

Kevin Williamson – Head of Communities and Wellbeing, National Housing Federation

Bruce Calderwood – Department of Health (invited)

Simon Duffy – Centre for Welfare Reform

Sally Warren – MD Paradigm

Who should attend?

Those involved in policy making in housing and people with learning disabilities, senior managers in housing planning and learning disability commissioning, housing and support providers.

We have a limited number of free places for people with learning disabilities and families.

There will be a range of workshops that will include:

- ① Personal health budgets
- ② Social care reform
- ③ Individual Service Funds in action
- ④ Welfare reform & the impact on supported living
- ⑤ Using assistive technology in supported living
- ⑥ Enabling more ordinary lives in supported living
- ⑦ A co-operative approach to creating more housing opportunities
- ⑧ Experts by experience – people with learning disabilities assessing service quality with the CQC
- ⑨ New ways of commissioning

Sponsorship and exhibiting opportunities

We will have sponsorship opportunities and exhibition stands available for organisations to book. This will provide a great opportunity to meet a wide range of commissioners, service users and other useful contacts from the sector.
