Welfare Benefit Reform

Half Day

An essential half day session to get you up to speed on what has happened, and what is happening with changes to the Welfare Benefit system.

11 April 2013 Wrexham
25 September 2013 Cardiff

Welfare Benefit Reform

There are a lot of changes that have already happened to welfare benefits, and more to come - make sure you're up to speed!

Course Aims

This course will help you understand the changes in the Welfare Benefit system, their likely impacts and to help you work within a changing welfare benefit system.

Make sure that you are up-to-date with the facts and figures and understand how these changes will affect you and the people you support and advise.

Course includes

- information on the major changes to benefits for people of working age
- advice on how to help you protect the people you support from some of the negative effects of the changes
- information about the changes to existing benefits e.g. Housing Benefit, Social Fund
- information on the new Universal Credit and Personal Independence Payment.

Designed for

Anyone working in a support, care or advice role for a disabled adult who wishes to know more about the key benefit changes taking place and the impact they will have.
